"Michelle" Travel Leaders, Houston, TX:

We won-over a new corporate account the day before our owner's retreat. I received an email that one of the head people wanted me to see if we could get a cheaper hotel than they found online. This was a big test! They linked me to Orbitz and I was logging into every booking engine I could think of, several wholesalers, even the hotel's website... Then I logged into Sabre and saw the cheapest rate was TL7. Now the results are in! Worldwide Hotel Program rates BEAT the competition with a lot of properties! We actually have an easy way to compete that makes us look good! Please share this with everyone! Thanks so much for bringing out this program and making it a success!
